Sometimes you just have to walk through the home to know it feels right. For the first time offered in over 30 years, this sound brick home offers an exciting opportunity for any buyer type. Over those years it is evident the home has been well maintained and loved.

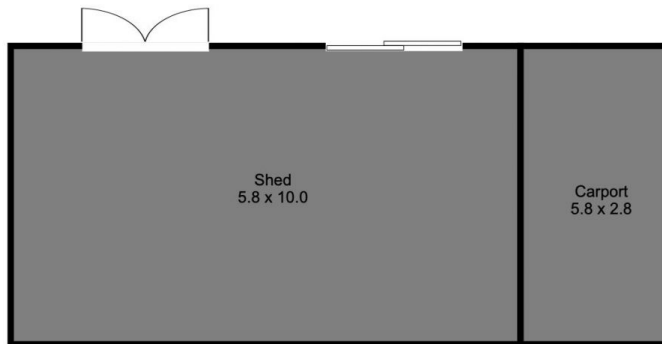

The home consists of 3 well sized bedrooms all with built in robes and spacious living areas including a paved and covered outdoor area perfect for those evening BBQ's. Other benefits of the home include evaporative cooling, a large shed with workshop space, toilet and hand basin, a bore and carport space for 3 vehicles.

Priced at fair market value and offered with vacant possession the family's instructions are to sell. For inspection bookings and further information contact Travis
